Dear Carrier:

Please note that your authority number suffix has changed from "I" to "HG". This number is now the only intrastate authority number you hold. It must appear in all advertising, it must be on all estimates or bills of lading, and must be clearly marked on both sides of your vehicles.

Your authority now allows you to haul household goods and freight statewide.

Also enclosed is a "Rights and Responsibilities" booklet. You must ensure that your customer has a copy of the booklet at the time you provide them with an estimate.

(Purchased from Movers World of Texas, Inc.).

The Doctrine of Merger, as announced in Applications of Chemical Express Carriers, Inc., et al., Docket # 009778A4D, et seq., provides that duplicative operating rights held by a carrier, whether or not wholly contained in a single certificate, are merged. Whether or not a carrier holds duplicative operating rights is a matter for determination on the facts of each case. Thus, the meaning of the term "duplicative operating rights" can be found in the decisions of the Commission, issued from time to time, in individual cases. For example, in Applications of Allied Van Lines, Docket Nos. 007143C8D and 036088A1S, the Commission determined that, when one household goods carrier transfers its authority to another household goods carrier and the transferor becomes an agent for the transferee, the operating rights transferred will not be found to have merged with other rights held by the transferee or subsequently acquired by the transferee. Thus, the agent may seek retransfer of the operating rights it once held without violating the Chemical Express Doctrine.

Duplicative operating rights held by the holder of this certificate, whether or not wholly contained in this certificate, have been merged.

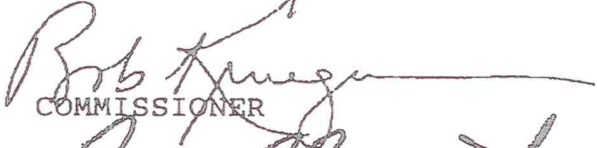

All authority contained in this certificate is restricted to shipments requiring the use of specialized equipment as defined in Texas Revised Civil Statutes Annotated, Article 911b, and regulations adopted thereunder, in the loading, unloading, and transportation thereof.

The transportation of HOUSEHOLD GOODS, USED OFFICE FURNITURE, EQUIPMENT & LIVESTOCK FEEDSTUFF (other than in bulk) and GRAIN (other than in bulk) is restricted from wholesaler to wholesaler, from wholesaler to distributor or retailer, or from merchant to merchant, or between any other character of dealers, processors, users, or warehousemen where neither the origin nor the destination point is a farm or ranch; and prohibited from transporting such commodity where both origin and destination are places on the routes of regular route common carriers. This restriction shall apply to all grants of authority except where specific findings in specific grants of authority are to the contrary.

This certificate and authority to remain in effect from and after the date hereof, subject to the provisions, limitations and restrictions of Chapter 314, Acts, Regular Session of the Forty-first Legislature, 1929, as amended at the Regular Session of the Forty-second Legislature, 1931, as amended Regular Session of the Forty-seventh Legislature, 1941, and as otherwise amended, and the rules and regulations of the Railroad Commission of Texas heretofore prescribed or which may be hereafter prescribed under and pursuant to the authority conferred upon it by law.
